19 November, 2021 – Soweto-born performance power-house – managed by STAY LOW Record and Management Label - Bontle Modiselle, announces the opening of her long-awaited dance studio at Hallmark House Hotel in Maboneng, Johannesburg.

Bontle Moloi, popularly known as Bontle Modiselle, alongside Hallmark House – Jozi's foremost art hotel, operated by proudly South African Entertainment, Hospitality and Media house Steyn Entertainment, known best as the owners and organisers of festival property Rocking the Daisies – have officially announced the opening of the Bontle Modiselle Dance Studio in the heart of buzzing Johannesburg.

With the effects of the ongoing global pandemic bringing the arts and culture industry to a near halt, this paramount collaboration between Modiselle and Steyn Entertainment aims to see an upliftment and growth to the dance and performance sector in South Africa.

Boasting unrivalled 360-degree views of the iconic Jozi Skyline from the rooftop of Hallmark House, the Bontle Modiselle Dance Studio is set to quickly become the country's foremost studio - by providing a safe, accepting and forward-thinking space which aims to cultivate and find new talent in the dance community.

"I've always felt like my life's work has been to teach – then at a point, a studio became a dream of mine because the spiritual relationship I have with dancing is one that I feel I need to share," said Modiselle.

In talking about the space, Modiselle remarks that "the studio is a home of expression, a home of love – and a home of freedom." We're thrilled to announce that this 'home' to dance – led by a businesswoman with enough multi-faceted accolades to write a novel - is officially set to open its diverse doors in January 2022. With a range of disciplines, styles and coaches under her wing, Modiselle is here to set the dance world alight - and there is no stopping her with the support of Steyn Entertainment by her side.

“This is the beginning of the big dream – this studio is for anyone who wants to be in a space where they can just be!” – Bontle Modiselle

Further information is soon to follow as the partnership aims to finish the year with a surprise bang and to usher in a new era for dance in South Africa under the watchful eye of one of the communities key figureheads in Modiselle.
